

Travelodge Hotel DOCKLANDS VIC

The Travelodge Docklands is located at the corner of Bourke Street and Wurundjeri Way, linking Southern Cross Station, CBD to Docklands.

Retail activated laneways, created through the property, expand the best of what Melbourne has to offer. The iconic nature of the final form contributes to the Docklands precinct by providing a landmark that has already created a strong sense of appropriation by the community to a part of Melbourne long neglected.
